Re: United States v. Peter Khaimov, 22 Cr. 20 (PGG)

Dear Judge Gardephe:

The Government, upon consent of defense counsel, requests a Curcio hearing for defendant Peter Khaimov. The Government does not believe that an actual conflict exists. However, prior to representing defendant Khaimov, defense counsel briefly represented cooperating witness Marcelo Quiroga. The Government expects Quiroga to testify at trial. Quiroga did not have any personal interactions with defendant Khaimov, and the Government does not anticipate that Quiroga will testify about defendant Khaimov. Quiroga's testimony instead will focus on the actions of other trial defendants. The Government nonetheless requests a Curcio hearing out of an abundance of caution. Counsel for defendant Khaimov is available on August 3, 2023 if the Court has availability.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

MEMO ENDORSED: A Curcio hearing Respectfully submitted, will be held on August 3, 2023 at 2:00 p.m.
in Courtroom 705 of the Thurgood
Marshall U.S. Courthouse, 40 Foley
Square, New York, New York.

SO ORDERED.

Paul G. Gardephe
United States District Judge
